

St. John Catholic School Technology Acceptable Use Agreement

I will be responsible for following all school rules, using technology only for legal activities, treating technology with respect, using only my password, using only approved software, and treating other users with respect. I will only access and modify my work; I will access and/or modify someone else's work only if I have permission to do so.

I will only use the Internet with my teacher's permission and guidance. I will use the Internet only for school purposes. I will not plagiarize from the Internet. If I find something that is obscene, illegal, or offensive, I will inform my teacher right away.

I will only use a class account to send and receive school-related e-mail when email is included in a class project.

I will keep my password(s) secret (4th-6th grades), be responsible with my time on technology, and print only what I need to complete class assignments.

I will report any harassment or inappropriate use of computer resources to my teacher.
